WORK EXPERIENCE

I have worked as a retail agent in Home Depot. My duties were to see to customer's needs, provide assistance to fellow co-workers, and primarily to operate cash registers.

I have worked in retail at Staples. My official position was front-end sales associate. The duties I performed ranged from operating the cash register, keeping the store stocked with products from storage , providing basic level customer support, as well as carrying load.

I worked as an assistant for the website drbeen. My main task was to assist the CEO with whatever general tasks needed to be done. My primary duties were scheduling meetings, organizing weekly tasks, helping distribute content emails to subscribers of drbeen, and publishing the same content to the website.
